

Timing

Business Sequence not be available, the student may petition the Business Committee to substitute a relevant

: Students who complete this sequence will be certified by the Registrar upon graduation. This certification will appear on the student's transcript upon graduation and may be included as an academic item on the student's resumé.

In addition to the Business Sequence, Wabash offers other types of programs and services designed to support ness should contact both the Business Committee Chair and the Schroeder Career Center early in their college ance and course work for students wishing to fulfill the licensing requirements to teach in the middle and high than the first semester of the sophomore year, he can usually fulfill the requirements for the degree and li in the following subjects: Biology, Chemistry, English (with Rhetoric), French, German, Latin, Mathematics, two years. These programs lead to both the Bachelor of Arts degree from Wabash and the Bachelor of Science

Wabash students who participate in the joint program may qualify for the A.B. degree by completing all of comprehensive and oral examinations may be taken during the junior year or during the first year of work at the engineering school administered under supervision of the dean's office of the School of Engineering. If

Students not completing the requirements for the Wabash A.B. as outlined above may be accepted at the end

both Columbia and Washington seek out applicants who major in non-technical fields, feeling that the techni

In addition, a student finishing Wabash with a strong background in science and mathematics can be admit